Parenting Groups Forming Now!!!

With all of this new technology, why is it still so difficult to communicate with our kids?

Technology has opened the lines of communication, but how do we use them to reach our kids, and at the same time, protect them from those who shouldn't?

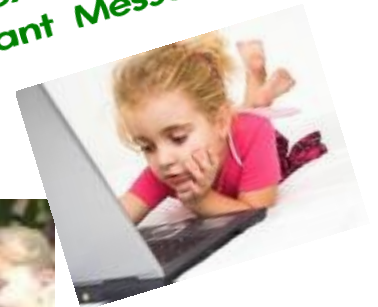

Let's get back to the basics!

Learn:

- Understanding children's misbehavior
- Principles of a democratic family
- Family constellation, birth order issues & sibling rivalries
- How to raise an independent child
- Family communication skills
- How to use natural & logical consequences along with other positive disciplinary techniques
- Action-oriented parenting skills
